Trinity Church News

Lord's Supper: This morning, in obedience to Christ and in memory of Him, we celebrate the sacrament of the Lord's Supper. Because we believe that the body and blood of Christ must not be received unworthily, we practice close communion, the elders overseeing who may partake. Members in good standing in sister congregations can request to partake with us prior to the worship service. May the Lord bless our fellowship today around His word and sacrament. The consistory has granted permission to Rev., Karen, Dorothy and Stephen Langerak to partake of the Lord's Supper this morning.

Sunday School: Children, please meet in the sanctuary following the morning service to pick up papers.

Pulpit Supply: Rev. R. Kleyn will preach for us next Sunday evening, June 16.

Sacrament of Baptism: The consistory approved the request for baptism of Justin and Natalie Hiemstra for their daughter, Isla Patrice. Baptism is scheduled for June 23.

Mediation for Pentecost: It is necessary that what the mind has imbibed be transferred into the heart. The word is not received in faith when it merely flutters in the brain, but is received only when it has taken deep root in the heart and becomes an invincible bulwark to withstand and repel all the assaults of temptation. But if the illumination of the Spirit is the true source of understanding in the intellect, much more manifest is His agency in the heart...for it is more difficult to inspire the soul with security than to imbue it with knowledge. Hence the Spirit performs the part of a seal, sealing upon our hearts the very promises, the certainty of which was previously impressed upon our minds. He also serves as an earnest in establishing and confirming these promises...for the hearts of believers are stamped with the Spirit as with a seal...[that] ratifies the gospel to us. (John Calvin)

Apostles Creed

I believe in God, the Father, Almighty, Maker of Heaven and earth; and in Jesus Christ, His only begotten Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; He descended into hell; on the third day He rose again from the dead, He ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit; I believe an holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.
